

I recognise that Disabled people experience injustice and barriers in society and I pledge to:

- Speak to Disabled people, their organisations and listen to their expertise and solutions
- Support Disabled people to fully participate in political and public life
- Ensure that plans and policies are developed with Disabled people from the start
- Strengthen Disabled people's rights and their enforcement
- Push for investment in public services, to support Disabled people to live, learn and work in the community

Signed _____

Read more at www.DisabledPeoplesManifesto.com

