Distinguished Guests
Brothers and Sisters
Ladies and Gentleman

Friends and Enemies....

White, Black, Brown, Red, Yellow, it doesn't make any difference what colour you are...

The only thing that power respects is power*

They take one little word out of why you say Ignore all the rest

Then the begin to magnify it all over the world to make you look like what you actually aren't

Much of what I say may sound like it's stirring up trouble

But it's the truth...

We don't care who likes us or not

As long as what we're saying is the truth

It's either this or that This or that

If you're wrong you're wrong

If you're right you're right

There'll be no skullduggery

No film flam

No compromise

No sell out

You can't deny that

You might not say it

But you can't deny it

If you're afraid to tell the truth
Why you don't even deserve freedom

You can't say that you're not going to have an explosion and you leave the condition

And as long as those ingredients explosive ingredients remain

Then you're going to have the potential for explosion on your hands

Am not the kind of person who came here to say what you like

I've got a plate in front of me but nothing is on it

Because all of us are sitting at the same table are all of us diners?

I'm not a diner until you let me dine Then I become a diner

I was in a house last night it was bombed

My own

It isn't something that made me lose confidence in what am doing

I'm not the kind of person who came here to say what you want

I was in a house last night
My own is it was bombed

It isn't something that made me lose confidence in what am doing
