

16

DAYS OF ACTIVISM AGAINST GENDER-BASED VIOLENCE

25
NOVEMBER to 10
DECEMBER

Raise the UCU
sexual harassment model policy with your employer

Can you raise GBV as part of your lesson plan?

Look at the campaign through different lenses:
black women,
disabled women,
lesbian and trans

Fundraise for a local or national cause fighting
GBV

Identify a branch champion to support women's campaigns

TOGETHER WE CAN END GBV IN EDUCATION

Visit <https://www.ucu.org.uk/16days> for resources

JOIN US ON 25 NOVEMBER TO 10 DECEMBER

16

ways to engage in the campaign

- 1 Visit <http://16dayscwgl.rutgers.edu>
- 2 Follow 16 days on www.facebook.com /16dayscampaign
- 3 Tweet support @16DaysCampaign
- 4 Publicise and use UCU resources www.ucu.org.uk/16days
- 5 Talk to members, potential members and your employer about how GBV impacts on the workplace
- 6 Raise the UCU sexual harassment model policy with your employer
- 7 Raise the UCU domestic abuse model policy with your employer
- 8 Make links with local organisations who are campaigning against GBV
- 9 Fundraise for a local or national cause fighting GBV
- 10 Sign up to UCU training for reps on challenging sexual harassment www.ucu.org.uk/training
- 11 Link up with the NUS to challenge GBV and harassment in your institution
- 12 Can you raise GBV as part of your lesson plan?
- 13 Identify a branch champion to support women's campaigns
- 14 Look at the campaign through different lenses: black women, disabled women, lesbians and trans
- 15 Keep the campaign visible: use the poster and wristbands
- 16 Share your ideas and actions with everyone
eqadmin@ucu.org.uk